

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Joshua Almeda,

Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,

Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-12599

Order

Date of Order: 1/21/2020

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-14-05765CR

The Appellant, Joshua Daniel Almeda, filed an appeal challenging his sentence as excessive and also challenging a portion of the restitution award ordered by the superior court. In a summary disposition this Court rejected Almeda's challenge to his sentence but remanded for clarification of the restitution award. We also directed the superior court to "explicitly resolve any disputed issues of fact and explain its legal reasoning for each disputed portion of the award."

On January 13, 2020, the superior court issued an order clarifying and providing further explanation of its restitution award.

Accordingly, Mr. Almeda is directed to file a memorandum responding to the superior court's order on remand. The memorandum should state which portions of the restitution award Mr. Almeda continues to object to, and it should also respond to any new factual findings or legal reasoning provided by the superior court. The memorandum shall not exceed ten pages and need not conform with Appellate Rule 212. Mr. Almeda's memorandum shall be filed on or before February 11, 2020.

The State shall file a memorandum in response. The memorandum shall not exceed ten pages and need not conform with Appellate Rule 212. The State shall file its memorandum ten days after Mr. Almeda files his memorandum.

Entered under the authority of Chief Judge Allard.
